Table of Contents

- 2. Effects of food waste on the environment
- 3. Who are my customers and our solution
- 4. Case study of Silverstar and Gold Reef City
- 5. Why bio-digesters mustn't use food waste
- 6. Connecting food waste generators with farmers

CUSTOMER CHALLENGES

WASTE COLLECTION COSTS

SMELLY WASTE AREAS

CORPORATE ACCOUNTABILITY

Re-use for planting food

Recycle into compost

CASE STUDY

CASINO, HOTEL & ENTERTAINMENT

• Landfill waste REDUCED 66% (40 tons to 12 tons)

Recyclables increased by 20% (13 tons to 16 tons)

42% SAVING in waste collection costs

In only 10 months – diverted 288 tonnes of food waste

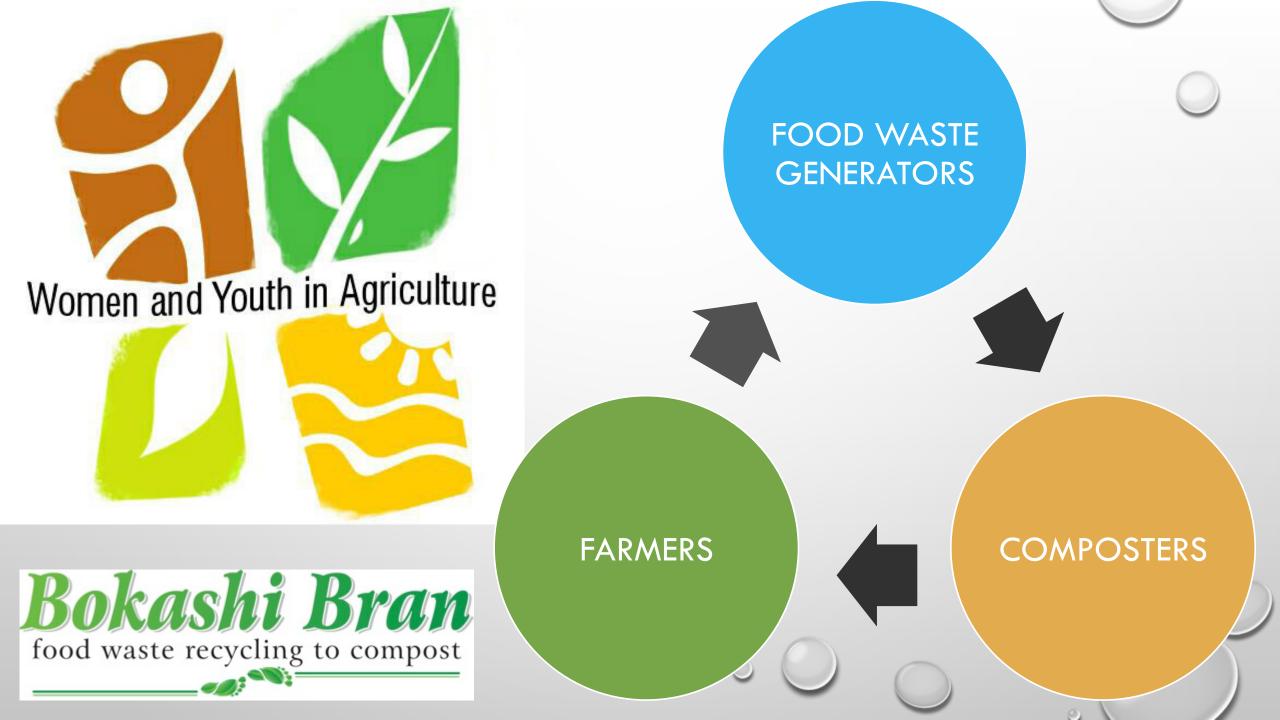

from landfill

| <ul> <li>Turning the wheaten-bran, a byproduct into a valuable resource.</li> <li>Turning food waste into a resource</li> </ul> |
|---|
| <ul> <li>Recipe of bokashi</li> <li>Local machine for processing foodwaste</li> </ul>                                      |
| <ul> <li>We have developed the manufacturing plant for bokashi.</li> <li>Ready to scale the business now.</li> </ul>            |
| <ul><li>Production staff</li><li>Technical staff</li><li>Logistics</li></ul>  |
| <ul> <li>Bokashi into communities to solvefood security issues and servicedelivery issues.</li> </ul>                 |
| <ul> <li>Bokashi Bran has improved turnoverfrom R120 000 in Year 1 toR1.2million in year 5.</li> </ul>                |
|   |

What is Bokashi Bran's need right now?

- Equipment to increase production
- Custom-build trucks for food waste collection
- Local macerating machine and in-vessel composting unit

Bronwyn Jones

bron@bokashibran.co.za

082 456 9225

www.bokashibran.co.za